JULY 11 - 15: ANIMALS IN ART

We share our planet with thousands of other creatures. For centuries these creatures have been an inspiration for artists. Explore different media while we learn about animals and their environments. What animal will inspire you?

Instructor: Delaney Cavanaugh, BFA, Art Educator Fee: $48

JULY 18 - 22: NO BRUSHES ALLOWED

Traditionally people use paintbrushes to create works of art, but what if they didn't? There are many ways to make a painting, come explore how this week! And remember, no brushes allowed!

Instructor: Mary Michalak, BFA, Art Educator Fee: $48

JULY 25 - 29: ANCIENT ART

As long as people have been around, we have been making art. Travel to ancient caves, Greece, Rome, and Egypt this week to see what art was all about back then!

AUGUST 1 - 5: ASIAN ART

In Asia, there are many diverse and complex cultures, each with their own artistic traditions. This week we will look at and make art inspired by Asian art.
